BRITISH HR AWARDS 2022

“Sally-Anne was a pleasure working with when we booked her for our client, In House Events, to host their annual ICE Awards at Southbank’s Queen Elizabeth Hall. Attending the event myself on the evening, I saw first-hand how Sally easily controls the audience and has them in raptures! – everyone enjoyed her topical comedy, and she has a lovely, easy-going presenting style on stage.

I recommend her to any event manager looking for a solid and confident comedian for their awards night or event”.

“Asking Allyson Smith to support me on tour was a huge mistake. Not only were her nails & hair shinier than my own, but she had crowds in every city in such fits of hysterics that I was forced to question my career choices. Allyson is lovable, relatable, and the type of comedian who surprises even those most deeply committed to the lie that ‘women aren’t funny” -
